

I believe that this attempt by BellSouth is an attempt to put a stranglehold on independent ISPs. Dropping regulation of broadband pricing in today's near monopolistic telecom environment will not only hurt ISPs, but in the long term has the potential of stifling the advancement of our nation's telecom infrastructure. Please don't allow this to happen. Thank you for your consideration.